Mike 'empresses' the lunch club!

Bro. Mike is known for his sweet tooth but he got more than he bargained for when he ordered a dessert at the Empress of Blandings. Lunch club organiser Bro. David looked on in amazement as the dessert was demolished in record time. That Bro. Mike is probably the slimmest member of the Southampton Circle may suggest that perhaps, after all, he isn't getting his just deserts!

10:10 scores highly with diners

John 10:10: "The thief comest not, but for to steal, to kill and to destroy.

I am come that they might have life and they might have it more abundantly."

The Southampton Circle dinners have hosted many uplifting talks in the past but the speaker at the dinner on 1 June gave one of the most inspiring speeches which left Circle brothers, wives and visitors very moved. '10:10' is a Southampton University CathSoc initiative which so incredibly reflects the message in John 10:10 from which it takes its name. It began when two CathSoc students became aware of the number of homeless people on the streets of Southampton and yearned to give these impoverished people a better start to their day. Thus began a daily, early rise for the CathSoc students who take it in turns to meet at around 6.45 am and, in pairs, go around a designated route in Southampton, giving out hot drinks, food and often clothing to the homeless, before embarking on a day of study. Amanda Silva, CathSoc Vice-President and co-founder of 10:10, spoke about the people CathSoc encounter each day: how they value the interaction with the students as much as the provisions because passers-by do not even wish them a good day; that many of the homeless genuinely wish to have a place to live and be regarded as part of society rather than as its outcasts. The students reap reward for their efforts; Tom Hutchinson told the Circle of the joy they share with the homeless people who finally get a house to live in. It was such a heartwarming story which evoked many questions from the diners. The students have already raised funds of £150 from a sponsored marathon which, along with a weekly donation from CathSoc, finances the supplies. A long glass, handed around the Circle tables, provided an additional £230 which prompted post-graduate student, Karen Tan, to exclaim how amazing it was to have their funds doubled without having to run another marathon! Amanda, Tom and Karen were joined by Nick Wong and the addition to the evening of these caring students with their inspirational story made it a special evening for everyone.

YOUTH PROGRAMME

Farewell to friends at CathSoc Barbeque

It was a bittersweet affair at the Southampton University CathSoc barbeque on the last day of May. A record number of students, over 60, attended Mass officiated by Fr. George Ngwa and the barbeque organised by Bro. Roger Lillie. But, for some of those students, it would be the last time as they leave the university this summer to forge new lives or careers further afield. Fr. George Ngwa recently arrived in the St. Swithun Wells Parish as Assistant Priest at St. Joseph (Romsey) and St. Andrew (N. Baddesley) and he very much enjoys celebrating Mass with the students. He has gained a reputation as a very spiritual man and Bro. Andy Philpott, who was the Deacon at the Mass, says that "he gave the most sublime blessing over the leaving students." As you can see from the photo left, Fr. George is a great fan of the British barbeque and, along with the students, he was most appreciative of the barbeque fare that was provided and cooked by brothers and wives of the Southampton Circle.

The relationship between CathSoc and the Southampton Circle has played a pivotal role in the birth of the Circle's youth programme. Southampton is the first Circle to have a designated Youth Officer and Youth Committee and a short article on page 33 of the Catena June issue describes the CathSoc initiatives that Southampton Circle has supported. Bro. Roger reports that a former CathSoc student has been introduced to the Oxford Circle and this clearly demonstrates how crucial the youth programme is to not only supporting and encouraging young Catholics but also ensuring the future of Catenian Circles.

Harvest of Talents

The March newsletter carried an article about a five week Lenten project led by Bro. Roger Lillie in his role as CAFOD Education Volunteer, and Katie Thom, Head of RE at St. Mary's College. The aim was to support 49 pupils in years 7 and 8 to put their extraordinary talents to use by raising money for CAFOD. Bros. Harry Harrison and Daverio Matteucci were on hand to act as mentors and offer business expertise. CathSoc students Karen and Nick, who attended the June dinner, and Davide Zilli, who has now made contact with the Oxford Circle, gave additional support. Using the £5 per group starting fund donated by the Circle, the groups of pupils used their talents for sporting tournaments, selling homemade cards and snacks, offering hairdressing sessions and performing a lunchtime concert. At the end of the project, the Catenian brothers and CAFOD students joined teachers and pupils at a meeting to find out who had made the most money, put in the most effort and came up with the wackiest idea. Over £500 was raised in total.

It was a wonderful initiative which highlighted the creative talents and hard-working spirit of the pupils. Interestingly, the groups who made things from scratch or added value to an existing product made the most money but the project was beneficial to all the pupils in teaching them organisation skills and financial awareness. Katie Thom praised Bros. Harry and Daverio for the instrumental part they played in guiding the students throughout the project. Praise should also go to Bro. Roger for his hard work in co-leading the Harvest of Talents.
