

OUT AND ABOUT IN APRIL AND MAY

The past month has featured two Circle events at Exbury Gardens and Salisbury Cathedral.

At the end of April, the beautiful 200 acres of Eden that are Exbury Gardens played host to a Circle outing and the intrepid few who donned comfortable walking shoes were not disappointed as the gardens were arguably at their very best. The day was best summed up by the poetess Eileen Ridgers who said this about her own visit to a garden:

"For I was absolutely spellbound at such a beautiful sight,
the poet that said we were nearer God in a garden was so right.
For the beauty of each avenue just took my breath away,
I could only stand and stare. What a truly magical day."

The tour around Salisbury Cathedral in late May was a most fascinating visit and provided a great insight into the history of this incredible building. The highlight of the tour was an opportunity to witness one of the four remaining copies of the Magna Carta! The Salisbury Cathedral copy is the best preserved of the four surviving manuscripts and the group were amazed to see how tiny the writing was. One wonders how King John was able to see what he was signing.

The photo left was taken in the Chapter House where the Magna Carta is kept and, clearly, the Cathedral had a miraculous effect on Bro. Harry Harrison who appears to have suddenly become the tallest in the group! Needless to say, lunch was next on the agenda and the visit finished on a high note in the Refectory whose glass ceiling allowed the diners to appreciate the beautiful architecture of the Cathedral exterior.

Many thanks to Bro. President Graham Palethorpe and wife Christine for two excellent and entertaining events.

SAYING ADIEU TO OUR CATHSOC FRIENDS

At the end of May the Southampton Circle hosted an 'end of academic year' barbeque for the CathSoc students. As always, the gathering took place following the Sunday evening Mass. The Circle members were pleased for the opportunity to celebrate the students' individual successes with sizzling gourmet delights cooked by our barbeque expert, Provincial President Roger Lillie. Bro. Roger even provided a fire blanket and a bucket of water which was very much in tune with Bro. President's health and safety side! Bro. Andy Philpott attended in his office of Deacon as well as socially. As you can see from the photo above, Bro. President donned an apron and gave a helping hand.

Our bond with CathSoc is part of the Circle's Youth Programme and the attendees at the June dinner were delighted to welcome next year's President and Vice President, Stephano Cinti and Cleancy Raina Braganza. Events such as the May barbeque and Circle dinners reinforce that relationship. Let us hope that it may encourage some of the students to take on the mantle of Catenian brotherhood in the future.

THE JOE GLEESON MEMORIAL FUND (PRESIDENT'S LOTTERY): Not so much a rollover, rather a carryover! The May draw took place alongside the June draw. The lucky winners are:

May draw:	1st prize: Mark Owen	2nd prize: Joe Gleeson
June draw:	1st prize: Joe Gleeson	2nd prize: Folkert Van Galen

JUNE WHISKY DRAW: The winner was Bro. Jim Moriarty on his first evening as a member of the Circle!

JUNE BIRTHDAYS: Congratulations to those who celebrate birthdays in June.

Margaret Lillie (1), Bob Millar (6), Felicity Singleton (11), Helen Matteucci (21), Christine Palethorpe (23), David Palmer (25) and Wilma Van Galen (25).

VICE PRESIDENT: Congratulations to Bro. Pat Feighery who was installed as Vice President at the June meeting.

CIRCLE PRAYERS

It was with sadness that the Circle learned of the death of Ann McNamara. As one of our Circle widows, Ann regularly attended ladies' nights and always looked very glamorous. She kept her age a close secret and so it was a great surprise to those who attended her funeral to learn that she had lived to the amazing age of 98 years. Ann will be greatly missed by the Southampton Circle for many years to come.

Please pray for the Circle brothers whose anniversaries occur this month:

- William Tickle
- Charles Marston
- Harry Parker
